The Keynote Speaker this year is Resmaa Menakem, MSW, LICSW. Resmaa Menakem specializes in couples therapy and domestic violence prevention. He has served as the director of counseling services for Tubman Family Alliance, a domestic violence treatment center, and as the behavioral health director for African American Family Services in Minneapolis. He is a former radio talk-show host who has appeared on Oprah and Dr. Phil as an expert on domestic violence and couples in conflict. From 2011 to 2013, Resmaa was a family counselor for civilian contractors in Afghanistan, managing the wellness and counseling services on fifty-three U.S. military bases. Resmaa is the author of Rock the Boat: How to Use Conflict to Heal and Deepen Your Relationship.

FRIDAY WORKSHOPS: PRESENTER BIOS

Laura Barbeau became a Marriage & Family Therapist while raising her four sons. She graduated from St. Mary’s masters program the same year her oldest graduated from High School in 2008. She currently works at The Postpartum Counseling Center with mothers & couples issues associated with perinatal adjustment. She is passionate about helping Mom's know they are enough. She also supervises practicum students, and therapists pursuing licensure.

Krista Post is the clinical director of The Postpartum Counseling Center, a clinic with offices in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Edina, & Bloomington, specializing in perinatal mood & anxiety disorders, infertility, and perinatal bereavement. Krista is a former director & founding member of Pregnancy & Postpartum Support MN (PPSM), and is currently a MN state coordinator for Postpartum Support International (PSI). Ms. Post gives trainings & talks around the state for professional & lay communities on a variety of reproductive mental health topics. She also provides training & supervision opportunities to therapists wanting to develop their expertise in these areas.

102: Providing Online Therapy: Requirements, Strategies, and Competencies for MFTs. Heather Hessel, MA, MLIS, LAMFT; Emily Jordan, MA, Dave Halper, MA, LMFT (Beginner).

Heather Hessel is a doctoral student in the Family Social Science department at the University of Minnesota. She holds an MA in Counseling Psychology with a Couple and Family specialization from the University of St. Thomas and an MLIS from the Information Studies department at the University of California, Los Angeles. She has published and presented research on parent-child relationships and use of information and communication technologies in families. She has also worked in the public, private, and independent sectors as a technology consultant and information professional.
Emily Jordan is a doctoral student at the University of Minnesota studying Family Social Science and Couple and Family Therapy. She has an MA in Marriage and Family Therapy from Saint Mary's University and a BS in Communication Studies and Marketing from Northwestern University. Clinically, Emily currently works in a residential addiction treatment center in Minneapolis. Her research focus is on mental health disparities in rural communities, and she is particularly interested in the effects of mental health stigma on families and their access to treatment.

Dave Halper is a licensed marriage and family therapist. He holds a BS in accounting, and an MA in Counseling Psychology with a post-degree certificate in family counseling from the University of St. Thomas. He worked in information technology for over 25 years for Fortune 200 corporations. He is a past board member for the Minnesota Association of Marriage and Family Therapy. He is a former owner of a multi-clinic outpatient mental health business and does consulting for clinics and clinicians, specializing in startups. He is currently the owner of Minnesota Online Counseling with the plan to develop a virtual clinic for mental health counseling.

103/203: Emotionally Focused Therapy for Couples: What We can Learn about Good Couple Therapy. Kurt Wical, PhD; Bryan Kingsriter, MA (Intermediate).

Kurt Wical is a Certified EFT therapist and the Director of the MN Couple Therapy Center and the MN EFT Community. He has been in practice for 25 years and has been specializing in couple therapy for the last 9 years using Emotionally Focused Therapy (EFT) for couples. He sponsors the EFT training in the upper Midwest, frequently presents on EFT and provides supervision/consultation to therapists using EFT.

Bryan Kingsriter has over 30 years of experience working with families, couples, and individuals. His current specialty is doing couples therapy with an EFT approach. He has advanced training with experiential family therapy (David Keith), experiential CBT (David Burns), EFT (Susan Johnson), AEDP (Diana Fosha).

104: How to Start a Private Practice. Jessica M. Miller, MA (Beginner).

Jessica M. Miller is a relationship expert and motivational coach. She owns South Metro Counseling out of New Prague where she has practiced for over three years, JMiller Coaching a virtual coaching business, creator of Back 2 Good product line, as well as, founder of Simple Press Books a private publishing company. She is a syndicated columnist and contributing writer for numerous online publications such as Psych Central, Yahoo, and Huffington Post.

Jessica is the author of Back 2 Love a relationship book designed to help couples find their way back to love. She also wrote How to Start a Mental Health Private Practice, and her third book How Could You!? a relationship book to help couples save and strengthen their marriage after an affair, is set to release in November 2016. Jessica received couples training from The Gottman Institute (with John and Julie Gottman) and the Relationship Institute (with Terrance Real). Continues to extensively study Sue Johnson’s work, and take online courses offered by Brene Brown's The Daring Way.

Business is her passion and helping couples find their way back to love is her obsession. Jessica earned her Master's Degree in Behavioral Science with a focus on Marriage and Family Therapy from Argosy University, Twin Cities. She is a member of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, Minnesota Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club out of New Prague. She is active in the New Prague school district, as well as, hosts a variety of events (10-15 events per year) for elementary aged kids throughout the year to increase socialization and help facilitate a strong friendship base.

105: LGBT Veteran Relationship Quality in a Study of Family-Supported PTSD Treatment: A Quantitative Analysis & Implications for Practice. Kimberly Stewart, MA (Beginner).

Kim Stewart received her Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology from the University of St. Thomas, where she also completed a focus in Marriage and Family Therapy. Kim believes in an integrative approach, drawing from Family Systems, Narrative, and Structural theories to discover how each client derives meaning from unique life experiences, particularly from within the family of origin. Kim finds it important to discover what her clients’ true needs are, and enjoys working with the client to find ways those needs can be met. Kim's clinical style is compassionate, non-judgmental, optimistic, and encouraging.

Kim is currently working as a Research Coordinator at the Minneapolis VA Medical Center, where she is active on a project which considers the impact of family involvement on Veterans' adherence to evidence-based PTSD treatment. Kim’s other professional experience includes volunteering in adolescent transgender research at the University of Minnesota’s Program in Human Sexuality, as well as a one-year clinical practicum experience at The Lorenz Clinic of Family Psychology.

106: A Post-Modern Discussion of the Power of Language in Supervision and Treatment. Noah Gagner, MA, MEd; Nicholas Newstrom, MA, LMFT (Intermediate).

Noah Gagner is a Family Social Science doctoral student at the University of Minnesota with a specialization in couples and family therapy. Noah’s research interests focus on the intersection of culture, identity, and physical health disparities. Clinically, Noah works with individuals, couples, and family impacted by drugs and alcohol and interaction with the criminal justice system.

Nicholas Newstrom is a Family Social Science doctoral candidate, MN state board approved supervisor and research assistant at the University of Minnesota, Program in Human Sexuality (PHS). Currently, Nicholas conducts research exploring risk factors for committing sexual abuse in adult and juvenile male populations. Additionally, he practices clinically treating individuals, couples and families impacted by atypical sexuality concerns.

107: Ethics Panel - How and Why do We "Do" Ethics in Marriage and Family Therapy. Kirsten Lind Seal, PhD, LMFT; Shonda Craft, PhD, LMFT; Diana-Christine Teodorescu, MA, LMFT, RPT-S, CPCC; Mark Flaten, MDiv, MS, LMFT (All)

Kirsten Lind Seal received her MA in Counseling Psychology and PhD in Couple and Family Therapy at the University of Minnesota. As Adjunct Assistant Professor at Saint Mary’s University of Minnesota, she teaches Ethics and Research Methods in the MFT program. Her research has been published in JMFT, Psychology Today and she recently published a case study on the use of humor in psychotherapy in the May/June 2016 issue of the Psychotherapy Networker. She presents locally and nationally, and has a private practice in Loring Park where she sees mostly couples and families. She appears biweekly on WCCO (CBS) TV’s Midmorning show in ‘Relationship Reboot,’ a segment dealing with relationships.

Shonda Craft earned her doctoral degree is from The Ohio State University in Human Development and Family Science with a concentration in Couple and Family Therapy. She also completed an official minor in Human and Community Resource Development (i.e., Quantitative Research Methodology), as well as the HIV Prevention Education certificate program. She was an Assistant Professor at the University of Minnesota from 2007 to 2014 in the Department of Family Social Science. In July 2014, she was hired by Metropolitan State University as Associate Dean of the College of Health, Community and Professional Studies; she served as Acting Dean of the college from April 2015 to June 2016. She currently is the Associate Dean of the College of Community Studies and Public Affairs at Metropolitan State University.

Dr. Craft obtained LMFT status in the state of Minnesota in 2009. She has nearly 15 years of formal clinical experience, and her current clinical practice primarily focuses on working with adolescents, adults, and families from urban communities who are dealing with complex trauma rooted in social and familial detachment, homelessness, incarceration, violence and abuse. She is a Minnesota-board approved and AAMFT-approved clinical supervisor.

In May 2012, she was Governor-appointed as the Higher Education Representative for the Minnesota Board of Marriage and Family Therapy (MnBMFT). Dr. Craft was recently appointed for a second term on the Board, and currently serves as Chairperson for the Board in July. She has previously represented the Board at the Annual Conference of the Association of MFT Regulatory Boards (AMFTRB) and served as the Secretary of the AMFTRB for two years as well.

She is a member of the editorial board for the Journal of Couple and Relationship Therapy, and has served as an abstract reviewer for AIDS and Behavior, AIDS Education and Prevention, Children and Youth Services Review, Journal of Marriage and Family, Journal of Marital and Family Therapy, Journal of Interpersonal Violence, Personal Relationships, Pediatrics, and Journal of Women’s Health.

Diana-Christine Teodorescu is currently completing her doctorate degree in Leadership with a focus on Historic and Race-Based Trauma, Epigentics, Human Inclusion, Personal Growth, Community Healing, and Social Justice. She holds a Master’s degree in Counseling and Psychology, and a post-Master’s certificate in Marriage and Family Therapy. She has worked with people and organizations in a variety of settings since 1991. She utilizes a strengths-based, collaborative perspective, incorporating systems, as well as servant and transformational leadership development theories. She has worked extensively with complex trauma; and, integrates an attachment-attunement, neuroscience, interpersonal neurobiology, human development, and systems based perspective. Specialty areas include strategic planning, process facilitation; collaborative dialogue; leadership, management, personnel, and program development; instructional design; cultural competence, implicit bias, and inclusion; coaching; peace mediation; and healing. Creativity, imagination, play, and mindfulness are essential adjunctive tools that are incorporated in any process. In addition, she collaboratively consults, teaches, presents, and provides training and/or hosts conversations in educational systems, communities, and businesses entities, locally and nationally.

Mark Flaten received his Master of Divinity from Luther Seminary in 1985 and his Master of Science in MFT from UW-Stout in 1997. His career began as a Lutheran Pastor with youth and families in large suburban congregations, and moved on to the past 17 years as a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in Private Practice in Golden Valley. He recently finished serving 8 years as a clinical member of the Minnesota State Board for Marriage and Family Therapy, including 5 years on the Complaints Panel. He also took roles as chair and vice-chair of the Board, and was chair of the Rules Committee during the last several years of the Rule Revision process to its conclusion. Mark taught Ethics and Professional Issues and several special courses while an Adjunct Faculty Member at St. Mary’s University.
201: Best Practices for Working with Refugee and Asylee Populations. LynAnne Evenson, MS (Intermediate).

LynAnne Evenson is currently a Lead Mental Health Practitioner providing Adult Rehabilitative Mental Health Services (ARMHS) in-home with Family Support Services, Inc (FSSI). LynAnne graduated with her Master of Science in Marriage and Family Therapy in 2015 from University of Wisconsin-Stout and is currently on her licensure track. LynAnne has focused on specializing in refugee and asylee populations since 2012 and actively attends conferences, trainings, and seminars to increase her knowledge and understanding of best clinical practices. LynAnne pioneered the refugee division of ARMHS at FSSI and currently trains professionals and practitioners on best practices while working with the refugee and asylee communities; as well as facilitating trainings on cultural competence and diversity in supervision and the work place. LynAnne is an active member of the Pre-Clinical committee with MAMFT and enjoys socializing with other post-student/pre- licensure members; she also likes reading, trying new activities, and pizza.

202: Entering Medical Contexts: How do MFTs get in? Tai Mendenhall, PhD, LMFT (Beginner).

Dr. Tai Mendenhall is a Medical Family Therapist and Associate Professor in the Couple and Family Therapy Program at the University of Minnesota (UMN) in the Department of Family Social Science. He is also the Associate Director of the UMN’s Citizen Professional Center and Director of the UMN’s Medical Reserve Corps’ Mental Health Disaster-Response Teams. He serves a clinician and educator for the UMN’s Department of Family Medicine and Community Health, wherein he supervises 1st-3rd year medical residents and doctoral-level MFT and MedFT trainees. His principal research and writing foci include the conduct of collaborative family healthcare and community-based participatory research (CBPR) targeting chronic illnesses (e.g., diabetes) and health-related behaviors (e.g., smoking cessation).

203: Emotionally Focused Therapy for Couples: What We can Learn about Good Couple Therapy. Kurt Wical, PhD; Bryan Kingsriter, MA (Intermediate). (See 103 above).

204: The Daring Way™ for Marriage and Family Therapists: The Practice of Empathy, Self-Compassion, and Shame Resilience. Naomi Schwenke, PhD, LMFT (Beginner).

Naomi J. Schwenke is a psychotherapist, consultant, and educator in Minneapolis. She is a certified Daring Way™ facilitator and has been working with individuals, couples, and families for the past nine years. She is currently the director of StoryCourage, an organization that helps individuals and organizations own their story (the beautiful and messy parts), and re-author their relationship with perfection, authenticity, courage, shame, vulnerability, and empathy. Naomi is passionate about creating authentic communities that support people in showing up, being seen, and living brave in the world.

205: What a Licensed Mental Health Professional Needs to Know about Divorce and Coparenting in MN. Erin Pash, MA, LMFT (Beginner/Intermediate).

Erin Pash is an energetic, active, mindfulness based therapist who puts an emphasis on being “real”, honest, and doing our best to laugh through the good and the bad life throws at us. Erin is the co-owner of Ellie Family Services and her vision helps support the idea that we should always be customizing services to not only meet the needs of people but to BETTER THE LIVES of everyday families!

Erin has a background in the helping profession that ranges from county level social work, to inpatient chemical health, to outpatient therapy, to group facilitator and supervisor! She has worked with people as young as 5 all the way through their 70’s and particularly likes working with teenagers, parents and adults.
Erin has furthered her interest and offers mediation and parent consulting services. She recently opened the Co-Parenting Institute at Ellie Family Services and offers services related to co-parenting and filling the gaps in the divorce and co-parenting process. Additionally, she leads workshops, classes, and various groups around co-parenting, teenage issues, and managing divorce. Having a good understanding of the future of the therapeutic industry, she is also on the road to becoming a licensed alcohol and drug counselor to ensure her and the Ellie team can customize services to any client who walks through our doors.

206: Use of Trauma Stewardship in MFT Supervision. Sarah Leitschuh, MA, LMFT (Intermediate).

Sarah Leitschuh is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. Sarah is also an AAMFT and MN Board approved supervisor. Sarah provides therapy services, groups, educational workshops and supervision services at her private practice in Eagan, Minnesota. Sarah has a special interest in working with parents as they figure out how to care for their children, nurture the relationship with their partners and attend to their own well being.

301: Working with Trans Youth and Their Families: Challenging Cisgenderism as Therapeutic and Systemic Intervention. Alex Iantaffi, PhD, MSc, LMFT (Beginner/Intermediate).

Alex Iantaffi trained as a systemic psychotherapist in the UK, and is now a licensed marriage and family therapist, and MFT supervisor practicing in Minnesota. He is currently training in Somatic Experiencing, and dance/movement therapy given his ongoing passion for bringing the whole body more fully into the therapy room. Alex specializes in working with clients dealing with gender and sexuality issues across the lifespan, and has worked in a range of settings over more than a decade of clinical experience. He also teaches as an adjunct at the University of Wisconsin-Stout, writes and has published on gender, disability, Deafness, sexuality, polyamory, BDSM, bisexuality, HIV, Men who have Sex with Men (MSM), and qualitative methodologies. He has been the Editor-in-Chief for the Journal of Sexual and Relationship Therapy for nine years. Alex has a long-term commitment to integrating social justice into his scholarly and clinical work.

302: Rural Mental Health Practice: Joys and Opportunities. Keran Flynn-Kroska, MS, LMFT; Patty Butler, MS, LICSW, LMFT (All).

Keran Flynn-Kroska is a board-approved supervisor who is currently completing her PhD in Counselor Education and Supervision at Capella University. Keran works for Greater Minnesota Family Services, which is a rural non-profit community mental health center located in Willmar, MN; an agency that serves children and families in 32 counties in southwest, central, and northern Minnesota. Keran practices on the Arrowhead in northeastern Minnesota in Ely and surrounding areas, has worked in rural mental health since 2008, and has provided services for children, families, and adults in home-based, community based, school-based, day treatment, and outpatient contexts.

Patty Butler is a state board approved supervisor who has been in the field for 30 plus years. Patty has always worked in the field of mental health. She has worked as a county social worker, she has worked with adults, has worked on the adolescent unit (ages 6-18) at the State hospital, has been the executive director of a family organization through a SAMHSA grant, has worked in a nursing home, and currently is with Greater Minnesota Family Services where she is an early childhood therapist that works in a day treatment program for children 3-5. Patty also has a child who has struggled with mental health issues.

Barbara Nordstrom-Loeb's deepest passion, as a therapist, is promoting whole-person embodiment and change that is informed by sensitivity to multicultural diversity and social justice. She works systemically, with attention to interactional patterns and larger contextual factors. She also uses self-of-the-therapist and 'embodied' self-of-the therapist lenses to deepen clinical efficacy and understanding. Barbara has advanced trainings/ certifications/credentials in a range of movement, embodied and creative/ expressive approaches including being a Board Certified Dance/Movement Therapist, a Somatic Experiencing Practitioner, a Mindell Processwork Associate, and a Laban Movement Analyst. She has also studied multiple Western Alternative Body Therapy approaches.

304: Be of Service: Authentic, Creative, Passion Driven Professional Development. Maureen Campion, MS LP (Beginner).

Maureen Campion: As a psychologist and marriage counselor in private practice for 14 years, I have specialized in the powerful attachment process of the early becoming a family years. I have created a number of creative programs to use my experience to serve clients including blogging, writing a book (Heal Your Birth Story), workshops, retreats. I am also a founding board member of Pregnancy Postpartum Support MN and The Twin Cities Birth and Baby Expo. Check out all I am up to at marriagegeek.com

Timothy Usset has served the military community of Minnesota for over a decade. He joined the Minnesota Army National Guard in 2006 and the Army Reserves in 2011. He has worked extensively with moral injury and post-traumatic stress disorder in Veterans from World War II to the current Iraq/Afghanistan conflicts at the St. Cloud and Minneapolis VA. Timothy is an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ and serves as the Chaplain for the 13th Psychological Operations Battalion and works as a Research Chaplain for the Building Spiritual Strength study at Minneapolis VA Healthcare System. Timothy obtained his Master of Divinity in Pastoral Care and Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy from Bethel Seminary.

306: Things Every LMFT Board-Approved Supervisor Needs to Know. Jennifer Mohlenhoff, JD (All).

Jennifer Mohlenhoff has served as the Executive Director of the MN Board of Marriage and Family Therapy since September 2010. Prior to her work with the Board, Jennifer worked primarily in the nonprofit and public sectors, including work with the Minnesota Court of Appeals, the Minnesota Community Foundation, Minnesota Technology, Inc., and the Office of the State Auditor. Jennifer holds a law degree from the University of Minnesota Law School, and a BA in Government and International Affairs from Augustana College in Sioux Falls, SD.

Justine Welch Mastin operates a private practice in Minneapolis called Blue Box Counseling. Justine specializes in working with clients who self-identify as being outside the mainstream - such as those in the geek, secular, and LGBTQ communities. Justine is also the fearless leader (founder/owner) of YogaQuest, a yoga business that blends geek narratives with yoga to reach this underserved population.

In addition to her work in office/studio, Justine appears at Pop Culture conventions around the country where she teaches yoga and speaks on geek wellness topics. Justine has most notably appeared at New York Comic Con (NYCC) and Chicago Comic and Entertainment Expo (C2E2).

Justine obtained her Master’s in Addiction Counseling from the Hazelden Graduate School of Addiction Studies in 2011 and a post-MA certificate in Marriage and Family Therapy from St. Thomas in 2013. She became a registered yoga teacher in 2010 and is recognized by the Yoga Alliance as an experienced yoga teacher.

402: MFT's in Practice: Working in Nontraditional Roles. Catherine Marin, MA, LMFT; Christine Dudero, MA, Mental Health Practitioner (Intermediate).

Catherine Marin has been working in the field of mental health for seven years. She received her Masters in Marriage and Family Therapy from St. Mary's University. Catherine's passion is working with the hard to love client. She values authenticity, and uses this to promote healing and change for clients that have been marginalized by the system. Working at Lighthouse Psychological Services, Catherine serves clients who have offended sexually and have co-occurring mental health diagnoses and/or intellectual disabilities.

Christine Dudero has been working in the field for six years. She received her degree from Argosy University and is currently pursuing the LMFT license. Christine enjoys working at the intersect of trauma and sexuality. She draws upon structural and strategic schools of therapy to assist clients in developing healthy relationships and positive sense of self. Working at Lighthouse Psychological Services, Christine serves clients who have offended sexually and have co-occurring mental health diagnoses and/or intellectual disabilities.

404: Therapist Warmth – Creating Change in Couple Therapy. Renee Segal, MA, LMFT, Certified Emotionally Focused Therapist and Supervisor candidate (Beginner/Intermediate).

Renee Segal is a Certified Emotion Focused Therapist and Supervisor Candidate. She is the founder of Segal Psychotherapy, LLC which is a group private practice in Minnetonka, where she sees couples that are recovering from infidelity and out of control sexual behavior. She is also a yoga teacher.

405: Working with Highly Conflicted Families: Therapist Roles, Challenges and Ethics. Mathew Meyers, MA, LMFT; Joe Noble, MA, LMFT, Deb Link, MA, LPCC, LMFT (Beginner/Intermediate).

Mathew Meyer received his MA in Marriage and Family Therapy from St. Mary’s University and is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. He is a Therapist and Co-owner of Traverse Counseling & Consulting. Many of the families he works with have had heavy court involvement and been highly conflicted. Mathew is passionate about assisting families in understanding their choices in moving forward and supporting families if they choose to work toward stability and healing.

Mathew writes a blog for helping professionals called, Relationships that Heal. It can be found at, mathewmeyers.blogspot.com. Find out more about Mathew and his practice at Traverse Counseling & Consulting at TraverseCC.org.
Joe Noble is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and co-owner of The Bridging Center, LLC. He works clinically with men, teenage boys, and conflicted families to support parental movement out of conflict and into more child-focused co-parenting relationships. Joe is the co-creator and co-instructor of "Bridging Parental Conflict", a psycho-educational experience that teaches conflicted parents the individual and systemic dynamics of their conflicted families and how they impact their children's development. Joe presents regularly on the topic of conflicted families, "Bridging Parental Conflict", and the use of power and control in relationships.

Deb Link is a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor, a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, a Rule 114 qualified neutral and evaluator, and the owner of Ascend Family Institute, a mental health agency specializing in families experiencing transition. Deb works primarily as a reunification therapist and a parent therapist with high-conflict co-parents. Throughout her career, she has worked in in-home, Rule 29, and outpatient settings. Clinically, she is DBT trained and works with trauma survivors, suicidal clients, clients in spiritual crisis, and clients with various relational concerns. Deb is an approved supervisor for the MN Board of Marriage and Family Therapy and the MN Board of Behavioral Health and Therapy, as well as the American Association of Marriage and Family therapy, of which she is also a clinical member. Additionally, she is a member of AFCC and an adjunct professor in the graduate program from which she earned her Master's Degree at Bethel University in St. Paul, where she teaches group therapy, ethics and professional issues, private practice entrepreneurship, and practicum courses.

Kurt Wical is a Certified EFT therapist and Minnesota approved supervisor. He is the director of the MN Couple Therapy Center and the MN EFT Community. Kurt has been in practice for 25 years and has specialized in couple therapy for the last 9 years. Kurt sponsors the EFT training here in the upper Midwest and frequently presents on EFT. He also provides supervision and consultation to therapists working with couples, often using video recordings to enhance supervision.

407: Rule Revisions Governing the Practice of Marriage and Family Therapy in Minnesota. Jennifer Mohlenhoff, JD (Beginner).

Jennifer Mohlenhoff has served as the Executive Director of the MN Board of Marriage and Family Therapy since September 2010. Prior to her work with the Board, Jennifer worked primarily in the nonprofit and public sectors, including work with the Minnesota Court of Appeals, the Minnesota Community Foundation, Minnesota Technology, Inc., and the Office of the State Auditor. Jennifer holds a law degree from the University of Minnesota Law School, and a BA in Government and International Affairs from Augustana College in Sioux Falls, SD.